

Jennifer Hardy

EDR

 Get In Touch

Jennifer Hardy brings over 15 years of experience in the environmental industry. Her current position as National Account Manager with EDR has focus on environmental due diligence for commercial property transactions. She also has several years' experience working in the analytical laboratory environment focusing on analytical service programs for both consulting and industrial clients. Ms. Hardy holds a BBA from Eastern Michigan University in Business Management and is currently pursuing an Executive MBA from the Ross School of Business at The University of Michigan. Ms. Hardy has been active with MAEP for several years.